FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Frontier Airlines Adds New Nonstop Route Between Wilmington/Philadelphia and Detroit, Mich.

Fares as low as $39 thru Nov. 16 at FlyFrontier.com*

DENVER (Nov. 6, 2013) –Frontier Airlines today announced it will add nonstop service from Detroit, Mich. to Wilmington- New Castle Airport in Wilmington, Del. (ILG) starting April 29, 2014. To celebrate this new service, fares as low as $39* are available only at FlyFrontier.com until Nov. 16.

At Wilmington-New Castle Airport, Frontier customers can avoid the hassles and lines of airports like Baltimore and Philadelphia. The airport offers affordable parking, transit service on Dart Routes 22 and 25 to downtown Wilmington and the Amtrak/SEPTA station, plus convenient access to Avis and Budget rental cars. The airport is just 38 miles from downtown Philadelphia, and 45 miles from the Delaware State Capitol in Dover, making the airport a convenient gateway to the entire region.

Customers traveling on Frontier's new routes to Wilmington-New Castle Airport will always find the best fares, more choice and more perks when booking on Frontier's website, FlyFrontier.com.

"We are thrilled to expand service at Detroit by adding service between Detroit and convenient Wilmington-New Castle Airport," said David Siegel, Frontier's CEO and president. "Customers who fly Frontier to Wilmington will enjoy a hassle-free experience and enjoy quick, convenient, affordable travel to popular destinations! And customers will find Frontier's transparent everyday fares to offer great value."

"We are very pleased to see Frontier spread its wings from Detroit to a third destination—bringing with it more low fares and great service," said Wayne County Airport Authority CEO Tom Naughton. "We have seen traffic expand tremendously every time Frontier adds a new city, and we expect Detroit consumers will embrace these new flights to the Mid-Atlantic's hassle-free gateway at Wilmington."

Service between Detroit and Wilmington will be in addition to Frontier's existing nonstop service between Detroit and both Denver, Colorado, and Trenton/Princeton, New Jersey.

Following is the schedule for Frontier's new Detroit service:

Wilmington-Detroit (beginning April 29, 2014)

Route	Departs	Arrives	Frequency	Aircraft
