FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

FRONTIER AIRLINES TO ADD NEW SERVICE BETWEEN DETROIT AND FORT MYERS, FLA.

Will introduce its new Airbus A321 on Detroit-Orlando, Fla. service

DETROIT (SEPTEMBER 29, 2015) - Frontier Airlines will add new daily low-fare non-stop service to Fort Myers, Fla. from Detroit Metropolitan Airport beginning Jan. 5. Frontier will offer special fares as low as $29 for members of its Discount Den on these new routes and $49 one-way for non-members.

“We recently added new Detroit-Orlando service and are excited to add yet another leisure market from Detroit,” said Daniel Shurz, chief commercial officer. “The local community has been very supportive of our Low Fares Done Right philosophy.”

“During the winter travel season, Ft. Myers is the third most popular destination from Detroit Metro Airport for our local passengers,” said Airport Authority CEO Thomas Naughton. “Competition on the most popular routes is important because it provides our customers choices in air travel.”

Last month, Frontier announced new daily service to Orlando starting Nov. 18 and will introduce one of its new Airbus A321s in the Detroit – Orlando market. The new aircraft will feature 230 of Frontier’s slim-line seats, the widest economy seats in the U.S. domestic airline industry, increased overhead storage and ambient lighting.

In addition to the new Detroit – Fort Myers service, Frontier also announced today new seasonal service between Fort Myers and Indianapolis; new service between Orlando and Houston, Kansas City, Mo. and Milwaukee; new seasonal service between Tampa and St. Louis as well as new service between Denver and Charlotte, N.C. and Philadelphia.

In addition to the new Fort Myers service, Frontier also flies non-stop from Detroit to Denver; Trenton, N.J.; Washington – Dulles; and beginning November 18th to Orlando.

Below is a summary of the new service:
