North Terminal Images now on Web

The North Terminal under construction at Detroit Metropolitan Wayne County Airport (DTW) now has its own pages on www.metroairport.com with colorful images, design schemes and a construction schedule.

Clicking the North Terminal Project icon on the left side of the Airport Authority's home page reveals project information and provides a peek into the future of North America's eleventh-busiest airport.

The pages include:

- Linear schemes of both the arrivals and departures levels
- 17 color images of the terminal's exterior and interior
- Design & construction schedule
- Demolition photos
- Project goals and objectives
- Business opportunities
- Frequently asked questions
- Links to architects, designers and contractors working on the project
- Opportunity for visitor input

The 26-gate, $418 million North Terminal is being constructed on the site of the former Davey Terminal and Marriott Hotel which have been demolished. Scheduled airlines to relocate from the Smith and Berry Terminals include: Air Canada, Air Tran, American, Frontier, Southwest, Spirit, United, USAirways/America West, and USA 3000 as well as non-scheduled airlines such as Champion Air, Ryan Air and others. International carriers British Airways, Lufthansa and Royal Jordanian will move from the McNamara Terminal. Northwest Airlines and its SkyTeam partners, Northwest AirlinK, Air France, Continental and Delta will remain in the McNamara Terminal which opened in February 2002.

Other helpful information on www.metroairport.com includes flight information and terminal maps, as well as information on parking, shops, restaurants, services, ground transportation and local attractions.
